

Garey High School
No Child Left Behind Act of 2001
Title I, Part a, Section 1118(d)
School-Parent Compact

A. School's Responsibility

To enable students to meet the State's content standards by:

- Providing high-quality curriculum and instruction
- Providing a supportive and effective learning environment
- Providing a safe, positive, and healthy learning environment

B. Parent's Responsibility

To support their child's learning by:

- Supporting the school's/district's homework, discipline and attendance policies and monitoring attendance
- Providing a quiet place/time for my student to do homework and monitor its completion
- Making sure that their students get adequate sleep and a healthy diet.
- Volunteering in their child's classroom
- Review all school communications
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children
- Exploring post secondary education and a variety of careers with their children
- Teaching and constantly reminding their children to show respect and pride in the school.

C. Students' Responsibility

- Abide by the school's/district's homework, discipline, and attendance/tardy policy.
- Attend classes every day, on time, and be prepared to participate
- Return completed homework on time
- Be a cooperative learner who is attentive in class and shows respect and pride in school.
- Ask for help when needed.

D. Ongoing Communication Between Teachers and Parents

- An Annual Title 1 Parent Meeting will be held in which part of the meeting is used to discuss the compact as it relates to student achievement.
- Provide Course Expectations to parents
- Parent-Teacher Conference and Grade Distribution Night is held once each semester in order for parents to discuss their child's progress.
- Reasonable access to staff via telephone, mail, and/or individual conference
- Opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class
- Observation of classroom activities of their child.
